

The 15th ACM Conference on Bioinformatics, Computational Biology, and Health Informatics (ACM BCB)
Shenzhen, China, Nov. 22-25, 2024.

Invitation Letter

Dear Sir/Madam,

The 15th ACM Conference on Bioinformatics, Computational Biology, and Health Informatics (ACM BCB) will be held in Shenzhen, Guangdong Province, PR China, Nov. 22-25, 2024. The conference is hosted by Association for Computing Machinery and organized by Shenzhen Institute of Advanced Technology and Shenzhen University of Advanced Technology. The conference will feature distinguished experts and scholars in the fields of bioinformatics and computational biology, who will deliver keynote presentations. Additionally, the event will organize group sessions with renowned scholars from various research disciplines to present specialized reports. The 2024 ACM-BCB conference is dedicated to promoting AI for Bio-medicine (AI4Bio), including cutting-edge AI advances in computational biology, bioinformatics, and health informatics, at the intersection of computer science, artificial intelligence, statistics, biology, and medicine. ACM-BCB 2024 serves to showcase leading-edge research on new technologies and techniques around gathering, processing, analyzing, and modeling of data and information for a variety of scientific, clinical, and healthcare applications, from bench to bedside.

This conference follows an onsite participation format. We look forward to your participation at ACM-BCB 2024.

Yours sincerely,
